SECTION 3 Coverage

PREAMBLE

This insurance covers Assured, Co-Assured or Joint Assured against liabilities and/or risks that are specifically mentioned in the Policy Schedule and special conditions expressed in respective paragraphs of Section 3 to apply to such cover.

BASIC COVER

3.1/ LIABILITY FOR CARGO

3.1.1/ Risks insured

The Assured is covered for liability in respect of clients due to the non-performance or poor performance of the Assured's contractual obligations relating to the handling of cargo, as follows

3.1.1.1/ Contractual liability for physical damage to and/or loss of entrusted merchandise (cargo)

3.1.1.2/ Liability for consequential financial loss to the Assured's clients resulted from liabilities insured under §3.1.1.1

3.1.2/ Contracts

The Assured is covered for his liabilities only if they are incurred under:

- a compulsory law or convention applicable to Insured Services;

- any other written agreements between the Assured and their clients provided and to the extent that such agreements have been approved by Insurer in writing and reference made in the Policy Schedule.

Failure of the Assured to incorporate into their contracts with their clients their Standard Trading Conditions or other conditions initially approved by Insurer will entitle Insurers to deny liability/cover under the terms of this policy.

3.1.3/ Special exclusions

3.1.3.1/ Unexplained losses

There is no cover under this policy for any liability arising from unexplained losses discovered only during inventory or stock-taking.

3.1.3.2/ Declared value (Ad valorem)

Except and to the extent that the contractual provisions have been approved in writing by the Insurer and special reference is made in the Policy Schedule, there is no cover under this policy for liabilities to the extent that the Assured's liability is increased by a declaration of value by their client.

3.1.3.3/ Excluded cargo

Liabilities in respect of the following cargo are strictly excluded under this policy: Jewellery, precious stones and metals, paintings and art objects, sculptures, antiques or collection pieces, furs, convertible coins, bank notes and all other papers of value such as commercial paper, securities, stocks, bonds, promissory notes, bills of exchange, warrants, bills of lading, registered certificates, bearer certificates, shares, debentures, coupons and documents of value of all types, treasury bills, short-term notes, non-obliterated postal and fiscal stamps, cheques (including travellers' cheques, restaurant vouchers, holiday vouchers and unused cheque books), bank cards, tax discs, horse-betting and lottery tickets, telephone cards, postal parcels and the fraudulent use that can be made of these.

For the purpose of § 3.2 third party property is defined as any property of a third party, except cargo, ship or vessel and any property leased to the Assured, Co-Assured or Joint Assured, for example, equipment, land or buildings. A third party is defined as any person other than Insurer, Assured, Co-Assured or Joint Assured. One effect of these definitions is that, unless separately agreed with Insurers and reference made in the Policy Schedule, Assured, Co-Assured or Joint Assured is not insured against their liability for physical loss of or damage to the property of another Co-Assured or Joint Assured and vice versa.

3.2.3/ Special exclusions
